Procedures

In our setting all staff mobile telephones are stored in the kitchen during session times. Staff may receive emergency calls in this area only. No telephones may be taken away from this area and used during the session.

Visitors to the setting are not to use mobile phones whilst on the premises and are reminded not to enter the children's toilets or change areas.

Any photographs or videos taken by parents, visitors and staff during fundraising events or outings may be used for personal viewing only and may not be placed on social networking sites.
